Information about Berlin

Berlin is the capital of Germany and one of the 16 states. With about 3,4 million inhabitants, Berlin is the second most populous city in Europe.

Flag

Coat of arms

Berlin is a city of culture, politics, media and science. The economy is based on high-tech firms and the service sector, encompassing a diverse range of creative industries, research facilities, media corporations and convention venues. Berlin serves as a continental hub for air and rail traffic and has a highly complex public transportation network. Modern Berlin is home to world renowned universities, orchestras, museums, entertainment venues and is host to many sporting events.

Berlin has developed a highly complex transportation infrastructure, providing diverse modes of urban mobility, U-Bahn (underground trains), bus and Tram. These are all governed by BVG, German for Berlin Transport Company, which is the main public transport company of Berlin. Here is the link to BVG website: <http://www.bvg.de/en> With your arrival in Berlin, you will receive a city map and a travel plan from our team.

Vertretung des Landes Baden – Württemberg beim Bund
Tiergartenstraße 15
10785 Berlin

Staatsministerium Baden-Württemberg

Germany has 16 federal states. One of these, is the federal state of Baden – Württemberg. The Baden – Württemberg State Representation in Berlin forms the hinge pin between state and federal politics: it gives matters relating to Baden – Württemberg a platform in the national political arena and serves as a showcase for our State in the Federal Capital. It is from this building that Commissioner of Land Baden-Württemberg to the Federation represents the interests of Baden-Württemberg in the capital. This will also be our Location for Friday.
